

FCIL-AQUITAPRO AND SUPERVISORS*

85 % of the internship supervisors consider that their intern fit in with the company quickly and 94 % of them think that their intern's vocational training ties in with the company's tasks.

94 % of the interns received a training period at their arrival in the company.

THE BENEFITS OF HAVING A FRENCH INTERN:

- Developping French customers ;
- Involvement, punctuality, responsibility and helpfulness ;
- International recognition in artistic and aesthetics circles ;
- New work methods transfer ;
- Excellent level of training and technical skills (biotechnology) ;
- Cultural exchange.

() According to the supervisors

“It has been extremely helpful, as both the company and intern has benefited from one another. As well as having someone who is keen and eager to learn more engineering and its variety of aspects.”

Atif HUSSAIN / Delphi Technologies (industrie) – Royaume-Uni

48 % of supervisors think their intern progressed one language level.

32 % believe their intern progressed two levels in language.

All supervisors consider that their intern has acquired skills and that the quality of the work accomplished has improved.

If they had the opportunity, 63 % of supervisors would offer their intern a job.

95 % of supervisors want to have another FCIL-AQUITAPRO intern

“Great asset to our team. Charlotte has a very calming nature and is very caring and compassionate. It has also allowed the team to understand another way that people learn.”

Lyn McCARTNEY / Hôtel & Spa – Royaume-Uni

(*) Survey conducted with internship supervisors, for the 2018/2019 promotion, after 5 months of internship. We got 50% of answers.